Atholl Highlanders' March

Duncan McDiarmid

to the Braemar Gathering

I particularly like the second tune, written by farmer, piper, and Atholl Highlander Duncan McDiarmid when the Atholl Highlanders (the Duke of Atholl's private army) were invited to attend the famous Braemar Gathering and marched from Blair Castle to the Memorial Park in Braemar — 68 miles by road, but 18 miles as the crow flies, up Glen Tilt and over the hill. Such inspiration for a cracking tune!!
