

JORDANHILL COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

1921~1971

by

John A. Fairley

History Department, Jordanhill College of Education, Glasgow

CONTENTS

	Preface	page v
	Acknowledgments	vii
Chapter
1	The Work of David Stow.	1
2	Centralisation and the Move to Jordanhill.	7
3	The First Decade of Jordanhill Training College.	13
4	The Pattern of Training in 1931.	19
5	The Lean Years of the Thirties.	31
6	The Years of the Second World War and its Aftermath.	39
7	Post-war Problems and the Move to Autonomy.	45
8	Building Expansion in the Sixties - Phase One.	53
9	Building Expansion in the Sixties - Phase Two.	59
10	Course Innovation and Reform.	65
11	Primary Methods and the Professional Subjects.	69
12	The Academic Subject Departments.	75
13	The Aesthetic and Practical Subjects.	83
14	The Emergence of New Departments.	91
15	Further Education and Youth and Community.	99
16	In-service in the Sixties.	105
17	Some Recent Developments.	113
18	"Ut et alios instruat".	127
Appendix A Rectors of the Glasgow Training Colleges.
Appendix A	Rectors of the Glasgow Training Colleges.	133
Appendix B	Glasgow Provincial Committee 1921.	134
Appendix C	Board of Governors 1971.	136
Appendix D	Glasgow Training Centre: Academic Staff 1921.	138
Appendix E	Academic Staff 1971.	140
Index		151